January 25th, 2021 - American Global, a privately held collaborative insurance and surety brokerage dedicated to the construction industry, is pleased to announce that Jennifer Westmoreland has joined the firm as President of American Global of Georgia.

Jennifer Westmoreland joins the firm from Zurich North America, where she most recently held the position of Construction Business Execution Lead in Atlanta, GA. She began her career with Zurich as an intern in the Construction business unit and went on to successively challenging roles in underwriting and leadership including the South Zone Construction Casualty Underwriting Manager position. In this role she built strong broker and client relationships and was responsible for the Zurich Atlanta, Orlando and Charlotte teams and clients. As the Business Execution Lead, she helped develop, manage, and implement operational and strategic priorities for the national Construction team, as well as develop enhanced solutions to meet client needs. Jennifer is a Risk Management graduate of the Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia. She is an active member of the Association of General Contractors and American Subcontractors Association.

At American Global, Jennifer will be leading our Georgia office, based in Atlanta. Jennifer has distinguished herself in the South East insurance market as a results-oriented construction professional and has brought valuable insights and work ethic to her clients and projects.

David Marino, Group President of American Global, shared the following: “We are thrilled to have Jennifer join our team to lead our Georgia operation. She is passionate about her work and will quickly become a valued asset to our clients and colleagues throughout the US. Jennifer’s underwriting and technical skills bring a depth to this office that will be instrumental in developing complex program design, and superior options for existing and new clients alike.”

Jennifer Westmoreland added, “I am honored for the opportunity to be a part of the American Global team and one that has built such a strong reputation in the Construction market. I am eager to use my experience within the Construction space to help support and drive results for both our clients and colleagues.”
