American Global Celebrates 7th Consecutive 'Best Places to Work in Insurance' Award

For seven consecutive years, American Global has been recognized by Best Companies as a “Best Place to Work in Insurance,” earning the distinction every year since first applying and again for 2026.

Jericho, NY – For the past seven years, American Global has applied for recognition as one of the “Best Places to Work” award, sponsored by U.S. Business Insurance. The awards, evaluated by Best Companies Group (BCG), focus on identifying insurance organizations that demonstrate strong leadership, employee support, and effective workplace practices. To apply, employers must complete a comprehensive evaluation assessment and meet stated participation thresholds for the confidential employee surveys.

While the process can be intensive and demands high employee engagement, Torre Dos Santos, American Global’s Director of Talent and Culture, believes it is thoroughly worth the effort, stating, “While the recognition is meaningful, the real value of this designation comes from the insights and perspectives we gain through the anonymous colleague surveys.” She noted that employee feedback directly influences how we continue to evolve our policies, benefits, development opportunities, and overall colleague experience. The recognition reflects American Global’s continued emphasis on the factors that contribute to a positive and engaging workplace. Torre emphasized that commitment, noting, “At American Global, retention and colleague well-being are priorities, and we work hard to create an environment where our people feel appreciated, supported, and empowered to grow.”

This year, survey results indicated that American Global exceeded industry benchmarks in all eight categories: Leadership & Planning, Corporate Culture & Communications, Role Satisfaction, Work Environment, Relationship with Supervisor, Training/Development & Resources, Pay & Benefits, and Overall Engagement. American Global isn’t simply a ‘Best Place to Work’, it meaningfully outperforms other Best Places to Work. The firm was proud and honored to earn its seventh consecutive “Best Places to Work” designation and looks forward to leveraging this year’s survey results to drive new initiatives that will further benefit American Global’s colleagues and culture.

Actual rankings and company profiles of the 2026 “Best Places to Work in Insurance” winners will be published in the November issue of Business Insurance Magazine and available online at www.BusinessInsurance.com.
